++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Most places staying dry and sunny or clear. Frosty overnight.

This Evening and Tonight:
Any clouds melting away this evening to leave a dry, cold clear night for most with a widespread sharp frost. Thicker cloud across much of the Western Isles with the odd shower here by the end of the night. Minimum temperature -6 deg C (21 deg F).

Tuesday:
Most places will have a dry morning with plenty of sunshine. Cloudier over Western Isles and later inland, with a few light coastal showers. Light winds. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
High pressure will keep mostly dry, settled weather with sunny spells and a few showers. Turning milder but still a frost risk at nights. Light winds.
